The Reefs Hotel & Club Appoints New Resort Manager

SOUTHAMPTON, Bermuda — The Reefs Hotel & Club has appointed Nagma Walker to the new position of Resort Manager, overseeing the daily operations of both the acclaimed hotel and new private residence club.

A seasoned hospitality management professional, Nagma joined the property in April 2009 as General Manager of The Reefs Club which opened in July 2009. In that role, she managed The Club's daily operations, services and staff as well as established relationships with owners and guests to ensure a high level of satisfaction. Prior to joining The Reefs Hotel & Club, Nagma served as the General Manager of the Ariel Sands Hotel and Beach Club also on Bermuda.

"With The Club now open and sharing many amenities and services with the hotel, we felt it was important to create a management position to oversee both entities," says Ben Tutt, Managing Director of The Reefs Hotel & Club. "Nagma's dedication to customer satisfaction, keen eye for detail and focus on quality makes her well-suited for the position."

"I'm excited to work more closely with the hotel staff and guests, while continuing to be involved with The Club owners," comments Nagma Walker. "The Reefs Hotel and Club staff are truly world-class and represent the best of Bermuda."

Every room at the intimate 64-room hotel offers a private balcony and stunning ocean and sunset views. The Reefs Hotel & Club carries these views into every bedroom and living room of every residence. For a limited time until all residences are sold, hotel guests may choose to rent a Club residence for a unique Bermuda vacation experience.
