

The Reefs Hotel & Club in Bermuda Names New Club Manager

SOUTHAMPTON, Bermuda — The Reefs Hotel & Club has named Perry Robinson as the new Club Manager, overseeing the daily operations of The Reefs Club's 19 luxurious private beachfront residences.

A native Bermudian, Perry has been with The Reefs for five years serving initially as the Food & Beverage Manager and recently as Operations Manager of the acclaimed hotel. Prior to joining The Reefs, Perry held management positions at other Bermuda resorts including The Stonington Beach Hotel and Elbow Beach Resort.

"With an in-depth knowledge of our operations and unwavering commitment to service, Perry will ensure The Club and its staff continues to exceed expectations as more owners move in," says Ben Tutt, Managing Director of The Reefs Hotel & Club.

"I am excited about the opportunity to work with The Club staff and spend time with the owners, many of whom I have come to know as long-time guests at The Reefs," comments Perry Robinson, Club Manager at The Reefs Hotel & Club.

Every room at the intimate 64-room hotel offers a private balcony and stunning ocean and sunset views. Expansive ocean views can also be found in every private residence from each bedroom, living room and veranda. For a limited time until all residences are sold, hotel guests may choose to rent a Club residence for a unique Bermuda vacation experience.
